349 Footpaths and Highways and related issues

Clerk to report: Highways to be again asked for road repairs, a gully blockage clearance for Illy Willy opposite East View and a street clean prior to carnival. Caravan on the Highway to be chased again as no response since March. Dog fouling is increasing and DDDC Dog Fine signs and waste accepted in Black Bin stickers to be requested. The grass needs more regularly mowing and the clerk will try to find who at DCC deals with this via our County Councillor.

350 Reports from Village Organisations –

Village Institute – Walls have dried substantially and decorating will be completed before the festival. The cycle event raised funds and the organisers wish to return next year. Hirers of the hall are increasing

Trust – £400 received from 2016 Carnival has 1 applicant for books for university needs currently and more awareness of its availability to those attending further education.

Festival – all on schedule, unfortunately the planned children's film won't be released in time. Councillors gave their permission for their jumbled names to be used in a fun quiz - £2/entry.

351 Report of the Clerk on: -

1.1 Village Assets/Website: Editorial privilege has been passed to our volunteer to refresh the village site. Maintenance of Pound has been carried out. Ditch allotment bench recommended for replacement – Council agreed to purchase a Marmax Sloper bench.

Council adjourned the meeting to view the potential site for a playing field and received a child's request for a bigger slide for the playground.

- 1.2 Allotments: all paid. The roadside wall may need attention but this is a road retaining wall.
- 1.3 Renewal of cast signs: the two in need of freshening are cemented in and will need doing in situ.
- 1.4 Topley Pike liaison: Cllr Jones to attend at King Sterndale on Thursday.

352 W3Z Fast Broadband

The company has not responded to the Institute at the time of this meeting to confirm a date. The Openreach campaign group in the village is gaining momentum to ask for action.
