473 Footpaths and Highways and related issues

Clerk to report: - DCC have assessed the HGV signage and agreed to look more closely. They have asked if there are any specific destinations HGVs are getting lost looking for – it was noted that most using The Ditch are taking an inappropriate shortcut via Phippenwell towards Ashbourne.

474 Reports from Village Organisations –

Village Institute – the council paid for new heating has been installed downstairs.

Trust – has benefited from £400 from the festival.

Festival – donations made and funds for next year retained with the first meeting in January.

Remembrance debrief – Beacons of Light: Council thanked the committee at the Institute for the Street Party; James and his crew for the bonfire; the bell ringers for their tribute ring and Richard Maher and Nick Reason for sorting the video link. The 100 yr anniversary was fittingly celebrated.

475 Report of the Clerk on: -

1.1 Village Assets/Website/Allotments:

The telephone kiosk repairs and pound need completing for Christmas. The bench half way up Main Street has collapsed and needs replacing – Council resolved to purchase a Marmax 3 seater sloper bench.

Allotment – plot 2 is to be split in half lengthways and each offered to the two on the waiting list as the plot holder has finished and departed.

1.2 Broadband update

The section of land to Burrs Farm still awaits their permission to lay cables but as this only affects the farm, Council resolved to proceed with the installation for everyone else up to this point as soon as possible.

1.3 Rear field update
No news

1.4 Community Involvement Scheme
Clerk contacted our County Councillor regarding the works we are entitled to and received reply that maintenance of verges is a Highway matter and DDDC clean villages per their website twice a year with further clearance for leaves on H&S grounds as required.

1.5 Helicopter noise nuisance
Clerk enquired at PDNPA Parishes Day and Planning Enforcement are looking into this as flights landing require Change of Use permission.

476 Christmas Tree

Resolved to purchase an 8' tree and low voltage lights for the Green along with anchors for an expected budget of £150. Mr Bagshaw has agreed to supply the electricity.

477 Precept 2019/20

Resolved to leave the precept unchanged.

478 Items for Information

DALC Circular 12-14, Clerks and Councils Direct, PDNPA DofE Survey – Council commented on the increase in groups breaking walls and creating their own route and the lack of awareness for cattle with suckling calves and inherent dangers of crossing between them.
Police Commissioner visit – Cllr R Jones met with Hardyal Dhindsa and our two PCSOs to discuss HGVs and speeding, rustling, motorbikes on footpaths and was informed of the Rural Crime Unit under Sergeant James Shirley based out of Matlock who now handle out of village issues.
